

SAFA Summer Fellowship

Thursday, July 26, 2012

DAY TWO

- 11:00 - 11:15 Icebreaker & Sign In
Objective: Continue to get to know other fellows
- 11:15 - 11:25 Exhibit Design
Objective: Understand what we need to accomplish this week
- 11:25 – 12:10 Using the Collection: Gabriel Furman papers, 1725 - 1913 (ARC.190)
Objective: Learn how to navigate the journals
- 12:10 – 1:00 Preliminary Research: Indexes
Objective: Scan the indexes to see what Furman writes about your topic
- 1:00 - 2:00 LUNCH AT BHS
- 2:00 - 2:30 Refresher on Research Techniques
Skills: Care and handling, evaluating a source, photographs, note-taking
- 2:30 – 4:00 Research: Journals
Objective: Find the entry your group wants to feature in the exhibit
- 4:00 - 4:10 BREAK
- 4:10 – 4:40 Transcribe Your Selected Journal Entry
Skills: Paleography (reading old handwriting) and transcription
- 4:40 – 5:00 Wrap Up
Objective: Share the entry you picked, and why you selected it

HOMEWORK:

Pick three words to describe Gabriel Furman.

Write one sentence explaining to a friend why Furman is so interesting.

Be as specific as possible.

We will collect your written or typed homework responses tomorrow.